Skylar Post's "A Ten Horse Tale"

One Horse

1 little horse

- At the start of the trail
- standing on a stump
- flicking flies with its tail

Two horse

2 little horses

- By the water, on a rock
- one said to the other
- “I wish there was a dock.”

Three horse

3 little horses

- And one stands up to say,
- “Further down this path
- I’m sure we’ll find some hay.”

Four horse

4 little horses

- All standing in a row
- coming to a stop
- as the leader shouts out, “Whoa!”

and a sneaky mouse

as 1 squeaky mouse

- watching from his home
- warns the little horses,
- “Be careful where you roam.”

Five horse

5 little horses

- Gather near the woods
- looking here and there
- like any good horse should

Six horse

6 little horses

- Now they find a sign
- happy that they've left
- that grouchy mouse behind

$$3 + 3 = 6$$

Seven horse

7 little horses

- The kids lay down to rest
- as the grownups wonder
- which food they like the best

Eight Horse

8 little horses

- Gather round to see
- what happened to the one
- that lies on bended knee

Nine Horse

9 little horses

- have come a long, long way
- stopping now to chat
- on such a pretty day.

Ten

Horse

Tale

10 little horses

- This trail's been so much fun
- playing in the woods
- and now their tale is done
